

Lessons:

There will be an instructional dvd appearing on www.TrueFire.com so keep an eye on their site. Filming will start after the summer of 2016.

Once the TrueFire dvd is done I'll start organising webcam lessons of the tunes I have recorded on the "Pickin' Again!"-cd. These lessons will take the form of an exchange of personalised webcam films between the student and myself. Once that is in workable order, I'll have a look at some of the old tunes from the 70-ies albums.
